

Anchor Psychotherapy, Inc.

Hiring an Associate Therapist with LGBTQ+ Affirmative Care Experience

Anchor Psychotherapy, Inc., located in Pasadena, California, is looking to hire an associate clinician with experience working with the LGBTQ+ community.

We specialize in treating complex trauma and working with families and children.

As our practice continues to grow so has our need to hire additional specialists whom have a passion for LGBTQ+ affirmative care therapy.

IDEAL CANDIDATE:

- Relevant experience and training working with LGBTQ+ individuals
- Ability to thrive in a fast paced, private practice environment; Self promotion/networking, great clinical judgment, sense of urgency, professionalism and confidence a MUST
- EMDR trained or motivated to begin training by an EMDRIA approved provider
- Completion of a minimum of 1000 hours toward licensure eligibility

If interested, please e-mail your cover letter and curriculum vitae to Bren M. Chasse, LMFT at bchasse@anchorpsychotherapy.com for consideration.